awards and rewards as stated supra which he received out of his hard work, sincerity, relentless efforts in promotion of education. There is no blemish in his entire career. Having developed eye sore over the development of my client in the society, his family members created so many allegations against him and enroped him in many litigations by way of filing civil and criminal cases against him. However, my client faced many civil and criminal cases filed by his family members against him and come out from such court cases successfully and no judiciary court is found him of guilty of any offence much less the offences alleged against him by his family members. My client has got clean chit from all competent courts. This was caused eye sore to the family members of my client . However, the family members have hatched a plan to denigrate my client's reputation in the society as well as in the public and accordingly they joined hands with some vested interested persons and enroped my client into the frivolous and created litigation. But, however, my client proved his innocence successfully and all the allegations leveled by my client's family members against him have been proved to be false. Taking undue advantage of falsity of the cases filed by my client's family members, you addressee No. 1 to 3 without taking any feedback from my client and without knowing the real facts and its veracity have published the above adverse news items in your DISHA e-paper telugu daily and given an impression to the public at large that as if my client has been involved in Civil and criminal cases.

5) My client states that all the allegations published in your DISHA e-paper referred to above are false as the said news items are defamatory, containing many insinuations, innuendos, untrue and mis-representations. The imputations made therein are wholly baseless, false and are made maliciously, with a pre-
